WALKED IN THE RIVER

And Sank to Rise no More -- A Passenger Drowned in the Night

OFF THE KEYSTONE STATE'S DECK.

As she is Passing Wellshurg on her Down Trip Yesterday Morning-His Body not Recovered -- He was Under the Influence of Liquor at the Time.

A passenger who came down on the steamer Keystone State from Pittsburgh yesterday morning brought the story of the drowning of a man as the boat was passing Wellsburg about two o'clock yesterday morning. The man was Michael Watson, who lived at Sewickly, Pa., and got on the boat there to go to Catlettsburg, Ky., to work on a railroad. He and the crowd with him had been drinking a good deal. They ook deek passage, and made a good deal of noise on the way.

Finally Watson, whether dazed by the liquor or by sleep is not even conjectured, walked back through the endue room and out into the river. man on watch saw him go into the river and raised the alarm, and the yawl was lowered and an effort made to save the but he had disappeared. The body was not recovered.

Watson was about twenty-five years old, and unmarried

Mrs. Teresa Staab dropped dead in an alley yesterday while going from one daughter's house to another, of heart disease. She had, grandchild, in her arms at the time she fell, but the child was well wrapped and dropped in the snow uninjured. She was the mother of Conrad Staab, Mrs. Emil Schmidt, Mrs. Fred Jahnke, und Mrs. Althoff. Knowing she had trouble at times with her heart, she had talked to Mrs. Schmidt about how she desired to be dressed when dead, and strangely enough, and as if preparing for the coming of death, these very clothes were found lying upon the top of her trunk after the lifeless body had been carried home. She had evidently taken them out of the trunk and laid them in order before leaving the house. Mrs. Teresa Staab dropped dead in an before leaving the house.

J. B. Smith, esq., is quite sick with indigestion. The Independent in noting this remarks that "the resemblance of Mr. Smith to Hon. James G. Blaine has often been remarked, and in exciting campaigns he has frequently been the recipient of marked attention while raveling because of this. It seems like a remarkable coincidence that he should now be afflicted with the same malady as the popular secretary of state. But if he could only feel as stout and robust as the correspondents make out Secre-tary Blaine it would be some compensation for the resemblance in personal ap-pearance and affliction."

John L. Davis, the Baltimore & Ohio John L. Davis, the Baltimore & Ohio yardmaster here, was selected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of O. A. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the government lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detriot treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cared. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle tree at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store.

Stimulate the Blood,

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are the great blood purifier. They are a purgative and blood tonic they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys and the skin, thus cleansing the system by the natural outlet of the body—they may be called the purgative sudorific and diuretic medicine. They stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease no matter by what name it may be called. One or two of them taken every night will prove an infallible remody.
